Taking Remote Production to the Next Level - Spring Draft 2020

Join Sound and Vision Entertainment (SAV) as they share their innovative approach to providing a remote comms solution for this year's largest and first-of-its-kind live TV sports broadcast. Clear-Com's Eclipse Matrix system and LQ Series were able to support over 80 simultaneous connections to production team members on their own devices using Clear-Com's Agent-IC mobile app from their homes around the country. This workflow is poised to become a part of our future, so join this session to learn more from the team that pulled it all together.

MODERATOR: Kris Koch, Clear-Com, Regional Sales Manager, Southwest CA

PRESENTERS:

Brady Belavek, SAV, Co-Founder

Dave Ragains, Show Machine, Communications and Audio Solutions Engineer
